Democratic Northwest.

NAPOLÉON, OHIO.
LOCAL NEWS, &c.

Good wheat weather.
Corn husking is in order.
Now stamp your sour-kraut.
Times for holding courts appears in this issue.

The clock for the court house tower has arrived.
"I-told-you-so" fellows are now having their fun.

Humphrey's building has reached its third story.
The Presbyterian church is still without a minister.

Timothy and Clover seed for sale at Bradley's.
Only about seven more weeks until Christmas.

Hay is selling at from $22 to $24 per ton in Ft. Wayne.
Fred. Buhlert has put up a coal house at the railroad depot.

All the street lamps should be lighted these dark nights.
Cary received a car load of potatoes from Michigan on Monday.

Latest styles of knittings at S. M. Honeck's, cheap for cash.
We wish to employ a good steady boy to learn the printing business.

Dealers are beginning to make preliminary preparations for the holidays.
Ladies wishing calling cards should call this office and examine our styles.

S. M. & M. E. Heller have put down a stone walk in front of their business room on Perry street.
Court of Common Pleas commenced its October session on Tuesday, Judge J. J.
Moore on the bench.

The advertising in the Northwest reaches more readers than by any other method that can be adopted.
During the coming winter Chas. Hornung intends putting up a large steam saw mill at New Bavaria.

Jam the stovepipe to jamming has been the disagreeable eleventh hour entertainment for the past few days.
When completed the court-house will be a magnificent structure, and directly opposite can be found a splendid line of Boots and Shoes.

The figure of Justice was placed in position upon the court house dome last Wednesday. Some like the design and some don't.
S. M. Honck has received some very nobby styles of piece goods and will sell them at reasonable prices. Try him and be convinced.

This one fact is being brought before the minds of the people of the United States. Kendall's Spavin Cure is not excelled as a Liniment.
If you want to keep warm this fall and winter go and get a supply of the substantial clothing sold by Hahn & Meyer at the Eagle Clothing House.

We have learned the cause of the Malin-tapack not arriving at its destination on time a week or so ago. It was misdirected through mistake. We beg pardon all around.
That poor week man with flushed cheeks and shrunken form and hacking cough, thought it was only a cold, and so neglected it. The Peerless Cough Syrup would have saved him. Now nothing will. 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. For sale by Kneeland.

The Relief Association has word from Michigan that the fire sufferers are well provided for and that no more clothing is needed. The association has therefore concluded to distribute whatever they may receive in donations to the poor within our own borders.
Hancock, who is again located at the Boat Store, wishes to see all his old customers, and as many new ones as choose to call, at his old quarters, where he intends keeping a general stock of groceries and provisions, and everything usually found in a grocery store. Bottled ale and porter for family use always on hand.

Mr. Jas. Myers cast his 60th vote on the 11th inst., in Harrison township, Henry county, Ohio. Father Myers is quite feeble, owing to a spell of recent sickness. He was eighty years old in February last, and is the oldest resident in Harrison township. Mr. Myers has been a very energetic man, and one of great memory, above the average capacity.

The roads are muddy.
We have enough rain for awhile.
Farmers are busy gathering their apples.
Stove dealers have their hands full just now.
It certainly was an off year—for the Democrats.

If you wish a neat fitting suit go to S. M.
Honck's.
Hogs are dying with the cholera in some parts of the State.
The best tea, coffee and sugars in town at H. Hirsland's.

"The man who laughs"—Not the defeated candidate.
"One altogether lovely"—Every woman in her own estimation.
The campaign is over and we are once more citizens and friends.

Just received, a new invoice of fine jewelry at C. M. Fisk's Jewelry Store.
Rev. Zook, the new M. E. Minister, seems to be giving good satisfaction.
Have you looked in Cary's Candy Cases?
Splendid assortment just received.

There was no session of the City Council Monday night. It lacked a quorum.
The new proprietors of the Washington street meat market took possession Monday.
Joshua Rhodes expects to occupy his new brick residence on his farm next month.
A large stock of glass and queensware can be found at H. Hirsland's, sold cheap for cash.

But little money changed hands this election. Both sides were doubtful as to the result.
The sidewalks along Perry street especially should be built and repaired before winter sets in.
Don't fail to see the boss kip, calf and grain boots before you buy elsewhere at REEDER'S.

That good Democratic friend, A. F. Raf-erty, has the thanks of all hands for a basket of eating apples.
The Ladies Relief Association will hold a meeting at the house of Mrs. Bernstein on Friday afternoon.
Winter is almost at hand. When it is here people will have their hands full keeping well fed and clothed.

Our Flower Pots have come, ladies please call and see them.
Hahn & Meyer have a fine stock of piece goods from which to select stylish suits.
Their fits are perfect and prices low.

An infallible remedy for Fever and Ague is Ayer's Ague Cure. Wholly vegetable and containing no quinine, it is harmless and sure.
We were mistaken in saying last week that Mr. Geo. Bowerman had moved to Liberty township. We should have said Harrison township.

The devotees of fashion claim that the Wright fine shoe eclipses all others. This shoe is for sale opposite the court-house at Freese's.
Some thief last week entered the house of Frank Neff and stole a certificate of deposit for $250 and a note of $100. Mr.
Neff has stopped payment on both.

GOOD SCHEME—Don't buy a dollars worth of ready made clothing before you examine the mammoth stock and get prices at the Eagle Clothing House of Hahn & Meyer.
Mrs. A. P. Stout displays an exceedingly fine assortment of fall and winter styles in millinery. It will repay any one to take a look at her show window and the goods displayed upon the inside of her establishment.

Hon. H. C. Grochner has our thanks for a copy of the Secretary of States Report for 1880. He requests us to state that he has a lot of these books for distribution.
Persons wishing one of the books should call upon Mr. Grochner.
Recorder Hartnett brought to our office on Monday two of the largest pearls we ever came across. One weighed 17½ ounces and the other 17 ounces. They were grown upon the farm of Mr. Hartnett, in Washington township, this county.

Wakefulness and bad dreams in children at night induce feverishness and fretfulness during the day. Worms are generally the cause of the annoyance. Denig's Worm Syrup will cure, when all other remedies fail. Try it.
Fully recognizing the necessity of good stylish, nice-made and good fitting garments, Hahn & Meyer have made a specialty in this line which has been a source of an immense trade. Therefore they have supplied themselves with an assortment of piece goods which cannot be beat in this or any other place in this part of the State. They invite an inspection of their goods and prices.

Mr. Will Kettering and Miss Myrtle Waterman, of Defiance, a loving couple who successfully played the roles of Pyra-mus and Thisbe, were recently quietly married and yesterday registered at the Robinson House. They are now in Indianapolis where Mr. K. will labor on and hope for the almost inevitable "bless you my children," from the old folks. The young groom's father is a prominent foundry man at Defiance.—Ft. Wayne News.

The "Star of Bethlehem," is visible now from 3 o'clock until daylight each morning just above the eastern horizon and is one of the most brilliant and beautiful orbs of the heavens. It shines with a brilliancy almost equal to a new moon. It is now on its way and will disappear from sight sometime this fall, not to appear again until after the lapse of three hundred years.
Those who delight in the beauties of nature will be paid for an early rise.

and Shoes in town at Reeder's.

Book Store.—The Book and stationary department at Saur's Drug store will be largely increased in quantity and variety over that of former years. Saur is now in the eastern cities laying in one of the greatest stocks of books, stationary and fancy goods, which has ever been on exhibition in the town of Napoleon; also the winter stock of drugs, medicines, chemicals, surgical instruments &c. Everything new, good, novel and tasty, in the line of either drugs, books, or stationary will be brought on at prices which cannot fail to sell them. 20 years experience has taught the "Little Dutchman" just how and where to buy to secure the very best bargains the markets afford and to secure the goods which will suit his customers best.

A new and large stock of Bird Cages just received at Cary's.
We hear much complaint about the figure of Justice which surmounts the Court house dome, citizens being dissatisfied with its appearance. The figure is certainly ridiculous to a person of refined and symmetrical tastes, especially so when looking at it from either the West, North or South.
Mr. Gibbs, the architect, has shown most excellent taste so far, and it is now to be hoped that the symmetry of the structure will not be marred by leaving the figure remain as it is.

The Score for October is full of timely articles on musical subjects, besides containing some excellent music. The series of articles on "German songs and song writers," by Louis C. Elson, is continued, and an interesting sketch of Schubert is given. A strong article against the dog-geral and "popular" songs about the President appears. The paragraphic department is especially well filled. The music given includes five new compositions. The Score is published by J. F. Perry & Co., 13 West street, Boston, and costs 10cts, a number, or $1.15 per year.

MARRIED.

RECKFORD—CAMERON—On Oct. 11, 1881, by A. Huff, J. P., Mr. M. E. Beckford and Miss Ella B. Cameron. All of Henry county, Ohio.

Mrs. A. E. Mann requests those ladies wanting dresses cut or made, to call at her rooms, over Stuckman's grocery. Her prices are reasonable.

DIED.

CHENEY.—James Cheney, died Oct. 17, 1881, aged 80 years, 1 month and 7 days.

OBITUARY.

ORDWAY.—Oct. 11, 1881, Sylvester, son of Richard and Sarah Jane Ordway, aged 1 year and 10 days.
Sylvester and Chester were twin brothers but one so young and beautiful was so soon taken from them. Oh, how hard to give him up! Sylvester was one of those little flowers which bloom among us just long enough to twine their loving tendrils around our hearts and are then transplanted by the father to bloom in everlasting glory. May the Lord comfort and support all the bereaved ones and especially the father and mother in their sad bereavement and great affliction.

Two bright sweet flowers On earth did bloom Transplanted in our care, But one so young did pass away From sorrow, pain and care. M. M. S.

BECHTAL.—Isaac Benjamin Bechtal, born March 16, 1858, died October 17, 1881, aged 23 years, 6 months and 15 days.
The deceased leaves a wife and child, father, mother, sister and six brothers who deeply mourn his loss. Isaac was loved and respected by all who knew him.
While sick he said to his wife: "Oh Leslie I will have to leave you; I would like to stay with you and little Allie a while yet, but if it is the Lord's will I am ready to go. I want all of my friends to meet me in heaven."
Dearest Isaac thou hast left us, And thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Short Breath.

O. Bortle, Manchester, N. Y., was troubled with asthma for eleven years. Had been obliged to sit up sometimes ten or twelve nights in succession. Found immediate relief from Thomas' Electric Oil, and is now entirely cured. For sale by Saur.
